

38.03.04 – Public and Municipal Administration

Duration

Intramural: 4 years

Number of state-funded places in 2020-2021 academic year: 0

Tuition fee in 2019-2020 academic year: RUB 120,000

Advantages

- Intensive language training
- Practice-oriented education
- Combination of study and research under the supervision of a professor
- Wide range of bases for practice and internship to choose
- Wide range of elective courses beside proficiency and special subjects

Core subjects

- Economic Theory
- Fundamentals of State and Municipal Administration
- Information Technologies in Administration
- Marketing
- Methods of Administrative Decision Taking
- Regional Administration and Territorial Planning
- Project Administration

Career Opportunities

The graduates can take up posts of an expert, an advisor, or a director at/in:

- State civil service of the RF (and its regions)
- Municipal service at local administration bodies
- State and municipal enterprises
- Scientific and education institutions, parties, commercial or non-commercial organizations

Entrance exams

Russian

Mathematics

Foreign language