

38.04.02 – Management

MA Program: International Management

Duration: 2 years (intramural), 2.5 academic years (evening-time studies)

Degree: Master

Number of state-funded places in 2020-2021 academic year: 5 (intramural); 7 (evening-time)

Tuition fee in academic year 2019-2020 – RUR 124.000 (intramural),
RUR 62.000 RUB (evening-time)

Objectives:

- The program is aimed at training specialists in the field of international management and honing their intellectual, communicative and creative skills to effectively perform challenging activities in managing organizations at the international level.
- The program graduates show a good command of foreign languages and therefore have essential skills in professional communication and handling international management problems.
- The program provides excellent career opportunities to be employed with organizations having different legal status, public and municipal administration offices, scientific establishments requiring efficient management, educational institutions of higher education and continuing professional education.

Subjects:

- Financial Institutions and Markets; Foreign Investment
- International Marketing
- Corporate Management in International Business
- Corporate Finance
- International Taxation

Career opportunities:

- positions in organizations of any legal status allowing to implement management skills for both employers and employees
- positions in public and municipal administration offices; entrepreneurs starting up their own business
- scientific establishments requiring efficient management
- educational institutions of higher education and continuing professional education

Entrance exam:

Fundamentals of management