

The only undergraduate program in the region which is taught fully in English

ENGLISH FOR CROSS-CULTURAL COMMUNICATION

“English for Cross-Cultural Communication” provides comprehensive training in linguistics with diverse practical and professional application

The program offers:

Professional training in foreign languages with a focus on fluency and authenticity

A unique team of instructors

Comprehensive training in linguistics and cross-cultural communication

Immersive training in new and innovative teaching technologies for educators of the future

Opportunities to take courses in partner universities

For more information, please visit LUNN's official website or use this QR code